2. Complete the preparations for the second major assignment as laid out in Assignment #7. In particular, you will need to have the articles or other materials that you would work from, copied or printed out so that I can look them over during our conference.

Homework Assignment #13 (due Friday, March 23) Email me the title you want for your seminar on a historical topic, and a date by which you will be ready to give it. I hope that at least a couple of people can be ready by next Monday. The sooner you can be ready, the better.
